Men's Breakfast: Finding your Use. This event will take place on Saturday, May 24th at 8:00 a.m., in the society room. The topic of discussion will be finding your calling. Come hear from other men about their experiences in their careers: what they find rewarding or challenging, and what advice they have for young men looking to enter into the job market. High School age and up invited.

Need any help? I can do pet care, house cleaning, gardening and farm work. Just call Elsa Brown at 484-697-0991

Renting at Old School Village:

The facility is available to members of the church.

1. If you are sixty years or older when entering an apartment, by paying a one-time entrance fee you are guaranteed that apartment for as long as you want--and are able--to live there (OSV must take your own safety and the safety of other residents into account). To be eligible for this sixty-and-above arrangement, you first need to be on OSV's waiting (priority) list, which costs $500. This fee is refundable (if you want to get off the list); does not obligate you if an apartment becomes available and is offered to you, but you reject it; and goes toward the entrance fee if you accept the apartment.
2. Adults of any age may rent an apartment without first being on the waiting list or paying the entrance fee, but this is a month-to-month arrangement only. Renters in this category understand they may be asked to vacate if someone sixty-and-above who has priority (because they are on the waiting list) becomes ready to move in.
3. To get on the waiting list or ask about availability if thinking about living at OSV, call Tom Kerr (484-436-1014).

For Sale: Blue baby select jogging double stroller for sale, asking $100. Can provide pictures if anyone is interested and they can reach out to me via text or call 610-823-7994 (Kayla King)

Wanted: several coffee cans, empty, any size with lids. Call Susan 756-6719
